O My! Lots of great press for Mother Mother's O My Heart

O My! Indeed, Mother Mother has made some waves and for good reason. The band's second album is a fine piece of work, smacking some pop glaze and industrial sheen with occasional big guitars and 70s psychobilly. This Vancouver quartet - Ryan Calderwood, Jeremy Page, Moby Lockwood, Al Spake, Dorian-Jean Gendron - are a traditional pop with the infectious energy of fellow Vancouver indie-rockers The Vines. The press they've received is also stellar. Congratulations to their new single on the air, locally playing and downloading "Turning Fire" in the Vancouver/Seattle area of "Body of Yams".

Another in the long list of Michelle Malone accolades

Michelle busts forth like she's got something to prove. She's mastered all the tools of the trade: hook-laden songwriting, a non-negotiable voice with powerful range, tough and tender guitars and a memorable presentation. She's destined for greatness. A refreshing surprise of an album. - Eric Thorn, Blues Review Magazine
